

UR Africana Studies Program

Fall 2023 Course Offerings

AFST 101:

INTRODUCTION TO AFRICANA STUDIES

Introduction to Africana Studies introduces students to the breadth of motivations, dimensions, and consequences of African diasporic life and thought. Students will study the various interdisciplinary and thematic approaches to the field, including the history of Africana Studies as a discipline and its core research methodologies.

Kehinde Wiley, Rumors of War, 2019, installed at the VMFA.

Program details + Major & Minor requirements are available at AFRICANA.RICHMOND.EDU

Questions?

Please contact

emcgowen@richmond.edu

AFST 201:

THE RUMORS OF WAR SEMINAR

The Rumors of War Seminar explores how the history of peoples of African descent, predating the modern concept of race, continues to impact the culture and lives of those in the African diaspora. The class emphasizes the legacies of slavery and colonization, including the role of race and place worldwide and in the history of the University and greater Richmond area.